"As a leading business magazine reporting on women's successes and achievements, the WomenInc.'s Most Influential Corporate Directors issue is the most comprehensive listing of women executives, influencers and achievers leading on corporate boards," stated the publication's website. The winter 2019 issue of the magazine includes a listing of more than 700 women directors serving on the boards of S&P 1000/Mid-Cap publicly held companies.

Serving on Allison Transmission's Board of Directors since February 2019, Judy Altmaier is also a member of the Board's Finance Committee and Compensation Committee. She was the President of Exmark Manufacturing Co, a subsidiary of The Toro Company, from 2013 until her retirement in January 2019. Prior to that, she was Vice President, Operations and Quality Management of The Toro Company from 2009 until 2013. Before joining Toro, Altmaier spent more than 25 years with Eaton Corporation, holding positions of increasing responsibility including Vice President of Operations, Auto Group Americas during 2009 and Vice President, General Manager Global Engine Valve Division in Turin, Italy from 2007 until 2009. Altmaier joined Eaton in 1983 as an accountant.

An Allison Board member since November 2018, Carolann Haznedar also serves as a member of the Audit Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. She held various positions with E.I. du Pont de Nemours and Company from 1981 until her retirement in June 2016. Most recently, she served as Senior Vice President, Americas for DuPont Performance Materials from September 2015 until June 2016, Senior Vice President, Americas, Packaging & Industrial Polymers from October 2011 until September 2015, and Senior Vice President, Global Packaging & Industrial Polymers from July 2008 until October 2011. Other global businesses she led include Engineering Polymers, focused in the automotive industry, Kevlar® Life Protection, and Elastomers, serving industrial markets. Prior to E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company, Haznedar worked for EDO Aire Corporation. She also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of Harsco Corporation.

"Congratulations to Ms. Altmaier and Ms. Haznedar. Our Board of Directors is very proud that they've received this recognition. Their operational knowledge and strong business leadership expertise strengthens our Board. This honor is well deserved," said Lawrence E. Dewey, Chairman of the Allison Transmission Board of Directors.
